BLACK is the color of the lowering thunder clouds. It is also the color of burnt biscuits and burnt peas and burnt steaks. It is also the color of your husband's brow as he tries to cut the steak. We aren't trying to paint a gloomy picture, but we do think that every housewife in Daly City should attend the Daly City Record Cooking School October 22 and 23.

PURPLE, we are sorry to say, is the deep color which falls over sleepy garden walls. Or so we have heard. Now the only thing we can recommend to do about it is to buy a new Zenith radio from Byrne's Radio Store. That way you can maybe get a station in China or someplace where they still think purple is the color of eggplants.

GRAY is the color of fog. Fog takes the press out of your pants. Press-out-of-your-pants makes you look like a bum. A bum gets fired. Don't let this happen to you! Take those pants to Beeson's now!

CERISE is a lovely color. We don't know exactly what color—in fact we have often wondered. But we are sure there must be some connection between it and Stan's Standard Station. If there isn't, we will just remark in passing that Stan knows what to do to make a car run like a charm.

WHITE is the color of flour. Flour is nice but it can be overdone. Flour on the floor. Flour on the stove. Flour on the nose. It's time to draw the line. Geneva Bakery can furnish you with that batch of fresh cookies in a trice—and they won't dump a sack of flour all over you, either!

YELLOW is the color of a kitty's eyes in the dark. Or is it green? Anyway, it has to be yellow, because we are just leading up to telling you about the carrots at Westlake Market. West-

Fair Nears the "End of the Trail"

The end of Treasure Island as the picturesque setting of the Golden Gate International Exposition is near, for the fair closes September 29 and this beautiful scene will be no more. There still is time, however, to see Treasure Island, its color, its gardens, its illumination and its shows.

New Firm Opens Here

Another firm takes its place at the top of the hill this week as the Daly City Cleaners and Dyers open tomorrow in freshly painted and remodeled quarters at 6274 Mission street.

In charge of the new establishment will be James Schultz, proprietor. Schultz is well qualified for his job, with a background of twelve years of experience in the cleaning and dyeing business.

"We'll do our best to serve this locality well," Schultz said today. "Free call and delivery will be featured. We invite your patronage."

New Stamps Honor American Artists

First day sales of additional new postage stamps commemorating "Famous American Artists" were opened Monday. The new stamps bear the likenesses of Daniel Chester French and Augustus Saint-Gaudens. Above (left) is shown a reproduction of a blue five-cent stamp honoring French, who executed the celebrated "Minute Man" painting and a three-cent purple stamp honoring Saint-Gaudens, famous for his statue of Abraham Lincoln.

Smartly Practical

This two-purpose jacket should find a place in the wardrobe of every golf-minded girl. Of silk, it is water-proofed with kerosene, which also makes it spotproof and acidproof. It is not only practical for a rainy or misty day on the golf course but also has enough warmth to be just right for a brisk fall day when the sun is shining.

Eveless Eden

Tourists returning from Greece report that Kargos, the capital of the Mount Athos religious colony, is the only place in the world where neither women nor female domestic animals are to be found. Women, cows, mares and hens are taboo.

Good News To Dieters

If you are one of those dieters who fears that ice cream may be fattening, yet finds it difficult to resist your favorite dessert on a hot day, you will be interested in this little story and its recipe.

It deals with an ice cream that contains three times as much milk and orange juice as cream, without sacrificing any of its rich, full flavor and smoothness. The deceptively expensive-looking parfait pictured consists of this ice cream, combined with a lengthwise slice of banana, a dab of whipped cream, a trickle of whipped currant jelly and a cherry. If you are very, very sensitive about your weight you may even eliminate the whipped cream.

This rennet-custard ice cream is smooth and full-flavored in spite of the fact that it is made without eggs and with approximately one-fourth of the total liquid in the form of cream — half to one-eighth as much cream as is usually used. It requires no cooking, is easily digested and has a much lower caloric value than the usual tasty of this type.

Follow these simple directions and you'll have a dessert that will delight — whether you are a dieter or not:

Orange Banana Parfait

2 rennet tablets
2 tablespoons cold water
1½ cups heavy cream

2½ cups milk (ordinary or homogenized)
1 cup sugar
1½ cup orange juice, strained
4 teaspoons lemon juice, strained
¼ teaspoon grated orange rind
3 bananas

Crush and dissolve rennet tablets in cold water in a cup. Warm cream, milk and sugar slowly, stirring constantly. Test a drop on inside of wrist frequently. When comfortably warm, (120° F.) not hot, remove at once from stove. Add dissolved rennet tablets and stir quickly for a few seconds only. Pour at once, while still liquid, into freezer can and let stand at room temperature until firm and cool. Pack in a mixture of 4 parts ice to 1 part ice cream salt and freeze until mushy. Open can and slowly add fruit juices and grated rind, turning dasher to prevent mixture from hardening on outside. Replace cover and crank and finish freezing until stiff. Remove dasher. Repack with ice and salt and let set until ready to serve.

Serve in well-chilled parfait glasses. Cut lengthwise slices of ripe banana and coil diagonally around inside of glass. Fill with ice cream and top with a dab of whipped cream and a sauce made by whipping currant jelly until it can be poured. Cap with a maraschino cherry if desired. (If you do not have parfait glasses, use ordinary sherbets.) Serves 10.

Pennsylvania U Marks 200th Anniversary

More than 500 colleges, universities and learned societies throughout the world are represented in the six-day celebration which opened Monday at Philadelphia, marking the 200th anniversary of the founding of the University of Pennsylvania. Among recipients of honorary degrees will be President Franklin D. Roosevelt. Above is shown a reproduction of the campus soon after the university's founding, below is a photo of Dr. Thomas S. Gates, president of the University and a view of a statue of Benjamin Franklin, founder.

On The Trail of Bargains With Ocean View Sue

Says Ocean View Sue:

We were terribly bored last week, so we firmly resolved it must never happen again. Here's what we're going to do to have fun:

Saturday night: join the crowd at Pat's, where there will be a free barbecue for all comers. "Come as you are," says the management, and we intend to.

Tonight: have a pan of sliced onions fried in butter to a delicate brown. What could be better? (Onions 5 lbs. for 10c at Sure Save Groceteria). And to go with it, a thick juicy steak from the Alemany Meat Market.

Tomorrow: no wonder we're bored, when we look like a witch. Tomorrow afternoon we're going to invest in a soft glossy new permanent wave from the New Home Beauty Shop.

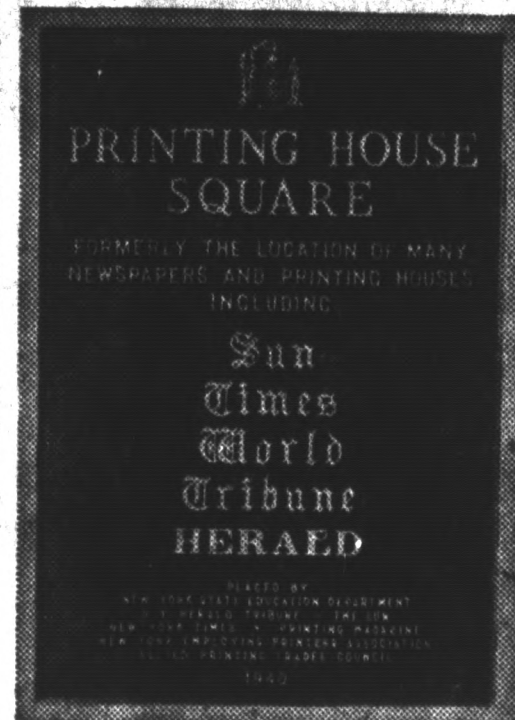

Thursday: write some letters. Then maybe some one would write us one. (The Ocean View Toggery carries a complete line of smart stationery.)

Friday: this is a special treat. The Ocean View Bakery puts pure whipping cream into all its pastries which makes them taste like something out of heaven.

Tuesday: This is the day we have set aside for curing our cold. With some remedies from the Ocean View Pharmacy and a good book in a nice soft bed, we are looking forward to a lovely excuse for not working.

Wednesday: Housecleaning brings its own joys when you (Continued in Column 5)

Dedicate Plaque

Coincident with the 500th anniversary of the invention of printing from moveable type, a bronze plaque commemorating "Printing House square" in New York city will be dedicated on September 16. The only city square dedicated to an industry, "Printing House square" was the former home of many New York newspapers and printing establishments.

Military Buttons

One of the greatest collections of military buttons is owned by Robert S. Duncan of Toronto, Canada. He has 2,000 army buttons which have come from every section of the British empire and from 17 other countries. They are divided into 31 groups mounted on corrugated boards covered with paper.

Noon to Midnight Bathing

Oslo, the capital of Norway, is famous among tourists for its bathing facilities. You can have a "private" beach on many an islet, or you can have noon to midnight bathing at the fine beaches at Ingierstrand, Bygdor, Bygdones and at Hvalstrand.

Boy's Toy

Members of the Charlestown branch of the Boys Club of Boston have completed a 59-inch telescope for exhibition at the Boys Club of America's annual convention in New York city. The boys constructed the telescope in club science classes, even grinding the six-inch optical mirror.

Church Benefit Whist, Tonight

Daly City whist players are making plans for attending the monster whist party at Masonic hall tonight.

Playing will start at 8:30 p. m. Proceeds will be used for the benefit of Our Lady of Perpetual Help church.

"There will be a large cash first prize," Mrs. Josephine Reardon, chairman, said today. "We have made all arrangements for a good party, and we cordially invite the public to attend."

Scouting the Shops

lake really has remarkable carrots. Bright yellow, crisp, solid, with feathery green tops. Of course you don't cook the tops, but take our word for it you'll like those carrots.

BLUE is the way we feel when the fog drips from the wires and the wind whistles around the corner and no one has written us a letter. If you should ever feel that way, let the melodious romancing of Jeanette McDonald and Nelson Eddy cheer you up at the Daly City theatre, (Sunday, Monday and Tuesday).

LAVENDER and old lace always sound romantic. But did you ever try to wash a precious old piece of grandmother's petticoat or great-aunt Susie's veil? Next time, take it to the Daly City Cleaners and Dyers to be sure that your heirlooms are in safe hands.

BROWN always makes us think of candy—the rich, dark chocolate kind sold by Goodness! candies. All the world loves a lover, but they love him a lot more if he brings a box of delicious chocolates. (Ask any girl's little brother.)

VIOLET is the color the teacher's face turns when your children spell a word wrong. Why not help that poor teacher out? Daly City Theatre is giving away a five-volume dictionary of the English language. For full details see page 5.

PINK is the color of sliced sizzling ham next to two fried eggs. There's nothing like it. For this (Continued on Page 7)

Serve Chicken Camille—read how easy!

Imagine chicken fried to a delicate golden brown—then baked with mushrooms in sweet cream! That's Chicken Camille—the last word in delicious fried chicken with added succulence and flavor!

To make sure the chicken is delicate in flavor, you need to fry it in a shortening that's pure and bland like all-vegetable Spry.

Once your guests taste Chicken Camille, they'll rave about its juicy tenderness—demand the secret of its marvelous flavor. So if you enjoy compliments—and what good cook doesn't—clip this recipe now and add it to your favorites.

A real energy dish

Tasty dishes, like Chicken Camille, made with pure all-vegetable shortening have a comfortable "staying" quality—give you quick energy—and lasting energy, too.

Tin Plate Containers

Between 85 per cent and 90 per cent of all the tin plate produced in the United States is used in the manufacture of tin containers.

Auto Mass Production

Mass production of autos began in the U. S. in 1900, a year when sales totaled 4,192.

CHICKEN CAMILLE

3-pound frying chicken, cut in pieces	1/4 teaspoon paprika
Seasoned flour	1/4 teaspoon salt
1/2 cup Spry	1/2 pound mushrooms
2 cups thin cream, scalded	2 tablespoons flour
	2 tablespoons water

Roll pieces of chicken in seasoned flour. Fry chicken in hot Spry in skillet until nicely browned on both sides. Place chicken in casserole and pour over the hot cream to which has been added the paprika and salt.

Sauté mushroom caps lightly in hot Spry remaining in skillet, then place them on chicken. Cover and bake in moderate oven (350°F.) 45 to 60 minutes. Remove chicken to hot platter and thicken cream with mixture of flour and water. Let boil up once and serve with chicken. Serves 4.

Primeval Oasis Has Lavish Set For Film Scene

During production, one of the strangest, and most interesting sets in town was the setting for Hal Roach's saga of prehistoric man, "One Million B. C.," now on view at the Daly City theatre. The most ambitious construction on the Roach lot in the twenty-five years of its history, it represented a lush primeval oasis when the world was young, and was dubbed by the cast "The Garden of Eden."

Its Eve was shapely Carole Landis and its Adam, Victor Mature. The snake, or "heavy" in the spectacular fantasy was Lon Chaney jr., who plays a strong-armed tribal leader.

But the tropical profusion of the setting almost overshadowed the actors. Since no one can say for certain what the world looked like a million years ago, the studio let its imagination run riot. Pomegranates hung upside down and grew from moss; tree ferns, ten feet high, imported from Australia, bent grotesquely against gnarled trees with roots half-way up their trunks; dates grew upwards on transformed sycamore trees, and huge Abyssinian banana trees, giant South American staghorn ferns and exotic fruits from Africa grew in wild abandon, with little regard for accepted zoology.

It was all quite fantastic, but not illogical, for in the evolution of plant life, anything was possible. When Hal Roach, who directed the film, saw the completed set, he remarked, "Comes the revolution, I'm staking my claim right here." Then, lifting a line from his recently completed "Of Mice and Men," he added, "I can live off the fat of the land."

Companion picture is "We Who Are Young," featuring Lana Turner and John Shelton.

LOVELY HEROINE OF "ONE MILLION B. C."

Lovely, golden-haired Carole Landis, plays the role of Loana, the Golden One, in Hal Roach's newest picture, "One Million B. C.," a thrilling saga of cavemen, which is now playing at the Daly City theatre.

Scouting the Shops

great national dish at its best, trade at Robertson's Egg Store.

ROSE is the color the world will seem when you're riding around in a new Willys car. Why delay? Mather Brothers says prices are low and terms are easy. Put on your rose-colored spectacles NOW!

SILVER is what Christmas usually costs. Lots of it. But we know one place where you can get your Christmas cards absolutely free this year. See details of the Daly City Record's offer on page 6.

ORANGE is the color oranges should be. But how many are? We have seen oranges that were pale green, oranges that were livid, oranges that were black. For real, orange oranges, the kind that are juicy and sweet and ripe, go to Lucca Ravioli company.

CREAM is the color of satin blouses and new wallpaper and good ice-cream. We prefer ice-cream at Farmers Market. It's really wonderful. Give your family a treat tonight for only a few cents and see how they'll appreciate it.

GREEN is the color your neighbors will turn when they see that new paint job on your house. H. H. Smith is holding a sensational paint sale this week that people can't afford to pass up. Especially people who want to impress their neighbors favorably.
